This role requires the flexibility and competency to serve in nearly any other position should the need arise, as well as motivation to seek out ways to better the camp program if the staff member finds him/herself with down time when not off.

The Program Support position exists to fill in for staff who are unable to perform their duties. This could result from a staff member becoming ill, injured, or needing to take an unexpected leave from their normal work duties. This means that the Program Support staff member could spend several weeks serving as a counselor, media specialist, crafts coordinator, first aid coordinator, or any other role as needed.

If there is no other role that needs to be filled, the Program Support Role will provide support to the ministry in the following ways:

1. Program Support:

- a. Bring extra camp magic and fun to planned camp activities (All Camp Orientation, TBAs, Evening Activities, Junior Staff Activities, Special Dinners, etc.) Coordinate this with the Assistant Program Directors.
- b. Help lead Zip Line and Group Building sessions.
- c. Explain and encourage support of the Summer Mission Project with campers.

2. Program Director Support:

- a. Be a leader and role model among the rest of the staff, taking care of problems as you notice them and bringing issues and concerns to the attention of the Program Director.
- b. Explain, pass out, and collect the weekly camper survey.
- c. Complete any miscellaneous projects that need to be done.

3. Staff Support:

- a. Seek out ways to encourage and support the summer staff spiritually and professionally.
- b. Be cross-trained in various other Support Staff roles with the ability to fill in as necessary. (Priority for training begins with the First Aid and Media roles, with others added as time allows.)
- c. Step in to lead activities for counselors on occasion to give them time to bond with their campers in a different way.
