Self-Cooking

When available, groups are able to rent our kitchen facilities to cook for themselves. For such groups, a self-cooking surcharge of $100 will be added. This fee helps cover the costs of utilities, housekeeping, and maintaining cookware. In addition, all such groups are required to attend a staff-led kitchen orientation at the start of their stay.

IMPORTANT POLICIES TO KNOW

General

- Final numbers for each meal must be provided TWO WEEKS prior to the week of your group's arrival. Payment is required for 90% of these numbers or the actual number of diners, whichever is greater.

- Meals are provided at 8:00 am, 12:00 pm, and 5:30 pm. We may be able to accommodate requests for different meal times, but such requests should be made at least FOUR WEEKS prior to the week of your group's arrival.
- Snacks may NOT be served in place of regular meals.

Food Allergies

- All food allergies must be communicated TWO WEEKS prior to the week of your group's arrival. Our kitchen is able to provide basic alternatives for typical food allergies such as gluten or dairy but needs to know about them ahead of time.
- If a member of your group has more severe or extensive allergies we recommend they bring supplemental food items to camp. Our kitchen staff is able to cook, microwave, and prepare separate food items for meals.
- A menu for your time at camp can be provided upon request to help you better plan and prepare.

Menu Options

- In general, our kitchen staff will set the menu for your time at camp. If you have a special meal or menu request for your group it must be communicated FOUR WEEKS in advance of your stay.
- We may not be able to accommodate your request.
- Menu changes incur an additional fee of $25 due to the increased time and logistics required.
- Special meals will be priced on a meal by meal basis. When a special meal is requested your group will receive a price quote.
